

Androniki Triantafylli

Associate Professor in the Practice of Accounting

Academic Background

BA in Accounting and Finance, Athens University of Economics and Business; MSc in Accounting and Finance, London School of Economics and Political Science; PhD, Athens University of Economics and Business; Post Doc, E.S.S.E.C Business School

Short CV

Dr Androniki Triantafylli is an Associate Professor in the Practice of Accounting at Alba Graduate Business School. Prior to joining Alba, she has held positions at the Queen Mary University, the University of London and the Alliance Manchester Business School, the University of Manchester

Her research interests lie in the areas of Corporate Governance and Sustainability Reporting, Management Control Systems in Service sector companies and Integrated Reporting. She has supervised a number of PhD students in those related topics and she has received grants from the U.K in continuing her research. Her work has been published in reputable academic journals and has been presented at peer-reviewed conferences worldwide.

She teaches Financial accounting, Management Accounting, Advanced Accounting and Reporting. Throughout the years, she has delivered lectures and workshops for a variety of Accounting courses at E.S.S.E.C Business School and the University of London. Prior to her PhD studies, Dr Triantafylli worked as an external Auditor for PWC and as a consultant in E.U costing projects.